Defendants.)

Mr. Antonio Marcos-Vargas hereby requests that he be able to phone his family in Mexico from the Sacramento County Jail at his own expense. Mr. Vargas has not spoken to his family during his nearly two year incarceration. The jail will allow Mr. Vargas to phone his home in Mexico with an international calling card, if the Court so orders.

Mr. Vargas requests that good cause appearing, this Court order that the Sheriff of Sacramento County, or his agent or employee, consistent with security procedures, allow defendant Antonio Marcos-Vargas access to a telephone on which he can place a call to the home of his mother in Mexico and that he be allowed to speak with his family members there for at least twenty minutes or for such longer time as the Sheriff may allow. This order is contingent upon the defendant's use an

1 international telephone calling card so that there will be no
2 long distance costs to the County of Sacramento. The 3 government has no objection to this request.
